NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, is considering an exchange of land under the authority of the Weeks Law of March 1, 1911, (16 USC 516) and the Federal Policy and Management Act of October 21, 1976, (43 USC 1716). The lands under the jurisdiction of the Forest Service that are being considered for exchange are described as:

Tract 60d: Being all that tract of land acquired by the United States of America from John Rainsford in at law case 2589 in the Western District Court for South Carolina, containing 55.5 ac. more or less, and more particularly described in a description and plat on file in the Edgefield Ranger District office located in Edgefield, South Carolina. Except that the United States is retaining a seven percent royalty on any minerals which may be produced on this tract.

The private lands are described as follows:

Tract 359: Being all that part, parcel or tract of land as shown in a deed of record dated 12/7/49 from the Judge of Probate, Greenwood County to Cornelius B. Young in Deed Book 58 at page 247, less and excepting that portion quit claimed to Henry A. Lassiter dated April 2, 1987 in Deed Book 322 page 478.

Said tract is more particularly described on a plat dated 3/17/88 by R. Daniel Procter prepared for Amselco Minerals Inc., located in Greenwood County, South Carolina containing 38.90 ac. more or less.

The above lands are in the Sumter National Forest in McCormick and Greenwood Counties, South Carolina. Any or all of the above described lands may be exchanged provided the values are equal. In the event the values are not equal, either party may equalize the values by the payment of cash. The amount of cash payment may not exceed 25 percent of the value of the lands (Interest in lands) transferred out of Federal ownership. Persons claiming such properties or having valid objections to this proposed exchange must file their claims or objections with Donald W. Eng., Forest Supervisor, P.O. Box 2227, Columbia, South Carolina 29202, within 15 days after date of the last publication of this notice.
